

PETITION: SAVE LIMPINWOOD KOALAS

To the Honourable President and Members of the Legislative Council of New South Wales

This petition of citizens of New South Wales draws to the attention of the House that:

1. Private property located at Zara Rd and Boormans Rd, Limpinwood, Tweed Shire, NSW is subject to Private Native Forestry Agreement PVP 03294.
2. The above-mentioned 320 ha property contains a significant mapped corridor to World Heritage listed Wollumbin National Park and contains an endangered ecological community, including a koala colony that has been subject to extreme stress and harm caused by unlawful logging practices.
3. The petitioners call upon the Minister for the Environment to terminate the Private Native Forestry Agreement PVP 03294 and direct the NSW Biodiversity Conservation Trust to purchase the above-mentioned property to conserve its significant environmental values and protect endangered species in perpetuity.
